The robbery was reported to the police at noon. Detectives are working on the theory that the theft was an "inside job." They declare a pane of glass was cut from a window and later dropped and smashed. Finger prints were found. They may furnish a clue.

Inspects Mail Routes—

C. W. Linebaugh, of Portland, route inspector for the post office department, came down on the mail boat Saturday looking over mail routes in this vicinity. He started from Merlin and came down Rogue river the entire distance over the proposed route from Merlin here, and got some first hand information as to what mail contractors have to contend with in making schedule time, especially in winter, and what would be a fair price for the work. While here he and Ash Moore went out trolling for salmon and succeeded in landing a 24-pounder, which gave the visitor a taste of the sport of angling on Rogue river. Mr. Linebaugh left for the north Sunday.—Gold Beach Reporter.

Denver, Sept. 25.—Frederick W. Mathieson, 22 years old, son of a wealthy LaSalle, Ill., railroad magnate, today is being held under military arrest at the state mobilization camp at Golden on a charge of unauthorized absence from duty. Determined to continue his honeymoon, which had been interrupted by a call to the colors two weeks after he was married, young Mathieson deserted the guards July 30 and took his bride on an automobile tour in British Columbia. He returned Saturday, but because he voluntarily gave himself up a charge of desertion will not be placed against him. His wife returned to her parents' home at Boulder.

The driver of the small machine, instead of stopping to offer assistance, sped away. Michael J. Wall, an electrician, was instantly killed, his head being crushed and his limbs broken. Joseph Brown is near death today with a possible fracture of the skull. The other men injured suffered contusions and lacerations.

HUGHES ON SPEECH- MAKING MARATHON

Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 25.—Republican Nominee Hughes brought his policies into the Buckeye state today, beginning a three-day oratorical marathon. Because his throat is still inflamed and his vocal chords frayed by his long-distance speaking in Indiana, Mrs. Hughes and the nominee's physician, Dr. L. B. Alexander, Jr., forbade any out-of-door speeches here in Dayton. The local committee, therefore, made arrangements to exhibit the candidate at various places, without any open-air speeches.

Hughes arrived at Dayton shortly before 9 o'clock and was met by a reception committee headed by J. J. Nevin. Later in the day Governor Willis of Ohio was due to join the party during Hughes' stumping in Ohio. First of all today the candidate was whisked off to the soldiers' home. Then at 11:30 he was billed to make a speech before the League of Republican clubs. This afternoon he was due to put in an appearance and review a parade at the state fair grounds and tonight to deliver his big speech of the day at the city auditorium. In between times he expected to confer with Ohio republicans on the political outlook.

Hughes begins the second week of his second campaign tour in splendid physical and mental shape, but very much bothered as to voice.

Soon after Konytias resigned his position.
